

1) Place the dot on the correct answer.

True or False: Once the Proclamation of 1763 had been made and colonists got used to paying higher taxes, everything was fine between the colonists and their home country of Britain.

True

False

Students, drag the icon!

2) What do you think? Were the colonists justified in their anger against the Proclamation of 1763 & paying increased taxes? Explain your answer.

Students, write your response!

Thursday, August 26, 2021 - 8th Grade Agenda

Essential Question(s):

- How did relations between the colonists and Britain worsen over time?

- 1) Complete the Google Classroom assignment using the following reading from the textbook: Start with The Sugar Act Taxes the Colonies, continue through pg. 57. Stop reading when you get to the heading, How Did Colonists React to The Townshend Acts? 15 - 20 min work time; turn in when finished & begin reading the section below.
- 2) Independent reading, pg. 57 - 59, How Did Colonists React to The Townshend Acts?
- 3) If time: Complete wkbk pg. 27, turn in when finished.